

DERELICT

Tell me what's in it for you
What are you looking at? Yes, you
Ain't you seen a man blow his nose?
The air is public property, you know

And I say yes, I'm derelict
So what, I'm falling over
Yes, I must have had a drink or two
And I say, hey, now, I'm so miserable
So what, what's the problem?
Hey, now, I'm not using your tissues
So tell me what's in it for you

Get your camera off my face
I ain't no Big Ben
I haven't been in any movies
And I'm not gonna steal your jewellery

Did I ask you what you use to turn yourself on?
So let me get my kick with my sorrow
I claim my right to fail, a human right
Losers of the world, let's unite

And I say yes, I'm derelict
So what, I'm falling over
Yes, I must have had a drink or two
And I say, hey, now, I'm so miserable
So what, what's the problem?
Hey, now, I'm not using your tissues
Wait, are you implying that I earned my fate?
That after all, the world is not so cruel?
Well, hey, Madam, you just made my day
I'm so glad that I spoiled your view
